The provision of Internet and online services at Yokine Primary IPS expands the range of teaching and learning opportunities available to staff and students. The purpose of this policy is to assist all school users in becoming aware of information, obligations and procedures that need to be followed to ensure the safe and effective use of digital technologies; and is in accordance with Education Department guidelines.

PURPOSE
The use of digital technologies in schools including Internet and Online Services enables staff and students to learn use and handle information; and communicate effectively in a rapidly evolving society. The use of these technologies will provide many direct and indirect benefits to staff and students including:

- Access to up to date and relevant information.
- The opportunity to access learning resources, projects and information regardless of the user’s location.
- The opportunity to apply problem solving skills in an authentic environment.
- Access to local, interstate and international competitions.
- Access to vast libraries of information from sources throughout the world.
- The acquisition of knowledge and transferable skills that will be useful throughout their lives.

GUIDELINES FOR TEACHERS
It is recommended that teachers:

- Are aware of their responsibilities for supervising student use of online services as laid out in the Department’s Students Online policy and the Duty of Care for Students policy;
- Maintain an informed view of the relative risks and educational benefits of online activity by their students. A variety of resources are available from ACMA’s Cybersmart site (http://www.cybersmart.gov.au/) to assist with this including professional learning materials, online cybersafety games, interactive learning programs, lesson plans and units of work, online helpline for students, information guides and presentation materials;
- Ensure that students are aware of the possible negative consequences of publishing identifying information online including their own or other students’ images;
- Refrain from publishing student images or any student-identifying information on the Internet. If such publication is necessary, limit the amount of time the information is online as much as possible;
- Check that any material planned for publication on the Internet or intranets has the approval of the principal and has appropriate copyright and privacy clearance;
- Are aware of the steps to take and advice to give if students notify them of inappropriate or unwelcome online activity by fellow students or members of the public. Such steps may include:
  - collecting as much information as possible about the incident including copies of communications;
  - emphasising to the student that the event is not necessarily their fault;
  - identifying any risky behaviours on the part of the reporting student and counselling them on the need to adopt more protective behaviours; and
  - if the incident warrants further attention, escalate it to school and/or Department authorities, notifying police only if you suspect the law may have been broken, such as a possible attempt by an adult to groom or encourage the student to meet face-to-face;
- Inform parents that student Internet access from home or other non-school sites does not occur via the Department’s network and therefore Internet browsing may not be filtered;
- Use group photos only with subjects in regular school uniform or day clothing when publishing on the Department’s intranet or Internet. Photographs of lone individuals, of students in swimming costumes, or similar should be avoided;
- Promote the use of strong passwords for students who can cope with the complexity. Stronger passwords:
  - contain a mixture of alphabetic and non-alphabetic characters;
  - are changed frequently;
  - do not contain dictionary words;

- All students are required to sign an Acceptable Use Agreement and parents are asked to sign to acknowledge the terms and conditions of this. The completed agreement will be kept on file.
- It will be each class teacher’s responsibility to ensure that students are aware of the responsibilities and obligations of the Acceptable Use Agreement.
- Students who deliberately abuse the Acceptable Use Agreement will be subjected to school disciplinary procedures that may include the loss of user privileges.
- The primary use of the digital technologies and online services is for curriculum purposes, independent research and the transfer of information relevant to the goals of the school and achievement of improved student outcomes.
- The use of digital technologies should be fair and equitable, legal and ethical and should be consistent with existing policies of the school and Department of Education.
- The Internet can only be accessed by students under direct supervision of staff. On no account are students to access the Internet unsupervised.
- Students and staff are required to be aware of and practice responsible copyright procedures for both print and electronic materials.
- Students are not to print without the permission of the teacher and responsible use of printers is encouraged in order to conserve resources.
- Games can only be played on school computers that have an educational purpose and with the express permission of a teacher.
- Teachers should ensure all students have returned the office form indicating the extent to which student’s work or photos can be published. Absolutely nothing can appear without permission and it is advised that only first names of students be used.
- Staff members are required to regularly check their email.

SECURITY

The curriculum network and Department of Education administration network have been integrated to allow staff members access to DoE resources. Due to the confidential nature of items stored on these networks it is imperative that security procedures are observed.

- Staff must not allow students access to a computer that is logged on to the administration domain (yokineps).
- Staff and students must log off of a computer when it is no longer required.
- Staff with DoE laptops must connect them to the school’s network at least once a week to allow DoE and virus updates to take place.
- Do not open any files attached to an email from an unknown or suspicious source.
- Delete chain and junk emails immediately.
- If in doubt when downloading from the Internet, copy the file to and external source (e.g. USB thumb drive) so that it can be checked for viruses
- All files saved to the ‘H’ drive or any of the shared drives will be backed up every night by the server. Teachers saving work to My Documents on school computers or DoE laptops risk losing everything unless they back it up separately.
- Staff members are required to change their password every month.
